50,000 RAILROAD ENGINEERS MAY STRIKE

150 SUFFRAGETTES ARE JAILED

TWO WOMEN AND OAKLAND MAN DIE IN AUTO

Machine Plunges Over Steep
Embankment; One Escapes.

Chauffeur Has Wife and Children Living in This City:

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 18.—Frank Stevens, an automobile driver of Oakland, and Marie Brown and Gertie Davis, two women of Moron, are dead as the result of an automobile ride near Maricopa at an early hour this morning. In company with James Matthews, the party left Moron early in the night, and after driving to Maricopa, spending considerable time in roadhouses along the route, the party returned.

Stevens was at the wheel. In coming down the steep incline before making a sharp curve, Stevens neglected to steer the machine and it plunged down a 25-foot embankment, killing himself and the two women instantly. Matthews jumped and escaped injury.

The Brown woman conducted a sort at Moron and came here from Searchlight, Nev. The Davis woman was in her house.

Her sister testified at the inquest held in Maricopa this afternoon that J. J. Spring of Stockton was their father. Stevens is well known in San Francisco and Oakland automobile circles, having a wife and three children in Oakland. He drove for H. M. Blakeless. The car was a new one, but now is a total wreck.

W. H. BALLARD IS NEAR DEATH FROM DRUG

Takes Poison, Attempting to Die, Grieving Over Separation From Wife

ALAMEDA, Nov. 18.—Crazed over the disappearance of his wife and her refusal to reveal her whereabouts or return to him, H. W. Ballard swallowed six grams of morphine last night in an attempt to end his life, and lies at the Hotel Crescent, where he went after his wife deserted him, between life and death.

Called hurriedly on the telephone at 11 o'clock last night, Dr. W. J. Hosford rushed to the bedside of Ballard and worked over him for four hours before he gave any hope of his recovery. Ballard was too low to be removed by a sanitarium.

That he is patient is on the verge of brain fever was stated by Dr. Hosford today. A. H. Ballard, a brother, and I. Boyer, a friend, had a conference at the Palace Hotel with Mrs. H. W. Ballard yesterday. She was told of the grave condition of her husband, but refused to see him, stating that she was going to Colorado to her parents.

AFFINITY IS ALLEGED.

"If she has deserted her children, I never want to see her again," said her husband today. "She has brought a lot of disgrace on me and her children just because she heard idle gossip about me which is entirely untrue."

That Ballard suspects his wife of having left him because of love for another man, as gleaned today from his conversation. That his attorney, Donald Wilson, who is now his wife's counsel, is that man, was intimated by friends of the family.

The two minor children of the Ballards are in charge of the Glenn Taylor school. A pretty stenographer who is known in the Metropolis Park building, San Francisco, where Ballard has his office, is said to have caused the rupture between Ballard and his wife.

Dr. Hosford stated today that he feared for his patient's mental condition.

POLICE LINES OBJECT OF ATTACK

Inflamed Throngs of Suffragettes Storm Cordon Guarding Parliament Buildings.

Mrs. Pankhurst Leads Militant Scores in Charge to Gain Audience With Asquith.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The militant suffragettes reopened hostilities against the government again today and marching 1000 strong on the parliament buildings gave the police a lively fight. The women, many of whom were placed under arrest, were led by Mrs. Emeline Pankhurst.

CHARGE POLICE LINES.

The suffragettes had determined if possible to force the police cordon about the house of lords, and reaching Premier Asquith, to insist on the introduction of a woman suffrage bill. The police, however, were too strongly entrenched and the women who tried every means in their power to force the line were thrown back.

CHEERED BY YANKEE TARS.

Repeatedly they retired breathless and disheveled, only to have their places on the fighting line taken by reserves. The police were ordered to make as few arrests as possible, but by 3 o'clock 21 women and two men were in police cells.

A large contingent of American blue-jackets from the visiting fleet were amused spectators of the struggle, lustily and gallantly cheering the women combatants and inciting them to fresh efforts.

82 SUFFRAGETTES JAILED.

The fight continued and the police were compelled to make wholesale arrests. At 4 o'clock 82 of the suffragettes and their supporters had been taken into custody. The intention of the suffragettes to storm parliament was made known at one of their meetings recently and the government quietly prepared the defense made today by the placing of strong police guards around the buildings. In this way the entrance of the women into the galleries of the commons was made impossible.

On the last occasion when a similar demonstration was made all of staid Trafalgar was shocked by the actions of the suffragettes, who violated known precedent in the matter of conduct in the time sacred chambers.

Having been frustrated in their first attempt months ago, one of the leaders disguised herself as a messenger boy and through the gratings of the gallery

THREE HOURS ON GRAND JURY GRILL

Anton Johannsen Subjected to Rigid Examination in Times
Explosion Inquiry

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 18.—Three members of the Coroner's jury which started an inquest into the deaths of the men killed in the Times explosion but never finished, were witness to-day before the special grand jury.

They were Edward Tufts, Max Unger and J. A. McStay. It is understood that the remaining members of the Coroner's jury will be called, which now seems comparatively near.

Anton Johannsen, the San Francisco labor leader, was again called to the stand to-day. When he was examined previously by the grand jury regarding his supposed knowledge of the movements and plans of the alleged conspirators, Bryce, Schmidt and Caplan, he was kept under a fire of questions for three hours.

Today, before he entered the inquestorial chamber, he said he expected another three-hour siege and appeared somewhat nervous.

There are only ten witnesses still waiting to be heard by the grand jury, which is none of his business how their girls' hair is dressed.

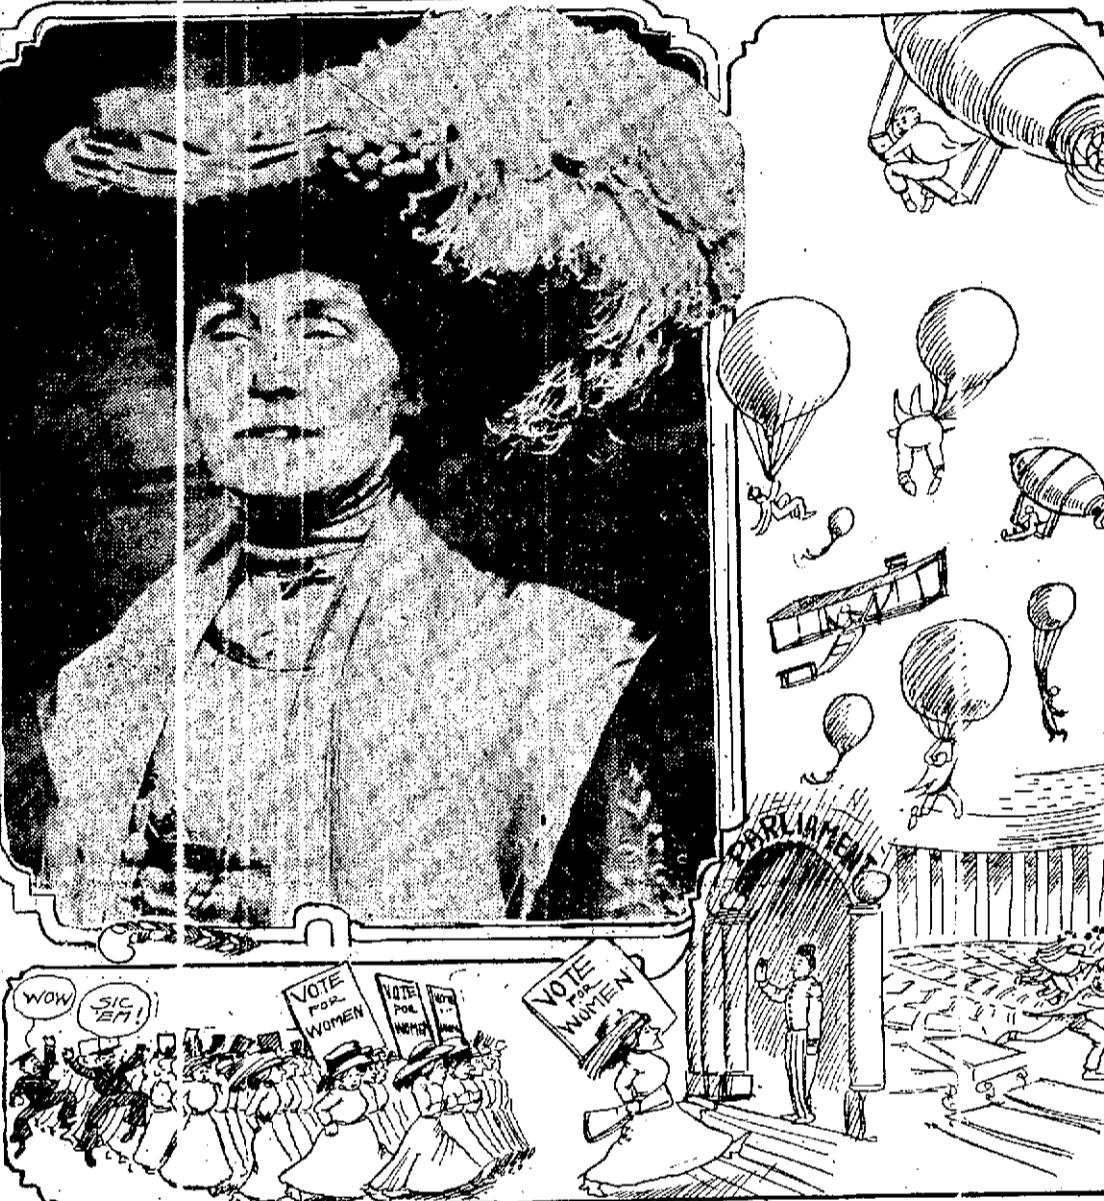

C. F. Gulick, principal of Lafayette school, has aroused the ire of the parents of the girl pupils by denouncing the fashion followed by some of the girls in dressing their hair with broad ribbons of brilliant colors.

It is represented that in addressing a class of girls the other day he told them that they ought to dress their hair in some other way and abandon the use of ribbons, which he described as "a class of ladies in Paris who are trying to make our girls look like them."

Some of the parents are in high dudgeon over Principal Gulick's comments and have retaliated by telling him that it is none of his business how their girls' hair is dressed.

BABY IS HURLED BENEATH CAR WHEELS

Margaret Mary Smith Escapes Death Through Quick Action of Motorman

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—Margaret Mary Smith, 10 years old, was saved by the quick action of the motorman, who brought his car to a stop just as the wheels of the front truck were about to crush out the life of the baby.

The accident was witnessed by a number of priests of St. Joseph's home, nearby, and they rushed to the scene, expecting to see the mangled form of the child.

Their fears were among the willing hands that helped to lift the car and Margaret Mary was pulled from her perilous position, cut and bleeding from numerous wounds on the head and face, and suffering from many abrasions on her body, but with no vital injuries.

She was rushed to the Central Emergency hospital, where a surgeon took her case in hand.

Flood Waters Filter Into Basement of Foreign Offices On Quay d'Orsay

PARIS, Nov. 18.—The river Seine, which broke out in the garage in the rear of the residence of Alexander Russell, a capitalist, living at 2525 Ocean boulevard, completely destroyed the structure and three automobiles which it contained this afternoon, and slightly injured Hart Martin and Harry Andrews, two chauffeurs.

The blaze originated in the storeroom of the garage and Martin and Andrews, in their frantic efforts to extinguish the flames, were burned about the head, face and hands.

The loss will approximate $20,000.

MEN FAVOR WALKOUT TO GET RAISE

Railways Refuse Demands and Great Systems May Be Tied Up

Brotherhood Is Now Balloting on Question of Strike for Increase in Wages

Secret Correspondence Dealing With Matter Published in Tribune for First Time

Oakland has become the center of a strike discussion involving nearly 50,000 members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers employed on sixty-two railroads west of Chicago.

Following the final refusal of the managers of the various roads on November 7 in Chicago to grant a 13 per cent increase, which had been reduced by the engineers from 15 per cent, plans were made by the Brotherhood for securing an expression of strike sentiment, and two days ago strike ballots were received by Leland Stanford Division No. 283, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. This branch contains more than 300 members, most of whom run out of Oakland yards.

Will Vote Strike

Since the receipt of the referendum there has been no concealment of the feelings of the men, and that they will vote for a strike is generally admitted.

Many of the engineers run over mountains and are subjected to long hours and tiresome trips, for which they claim to be receiving less than they were paid before the great railroad strike of 1893.

An increase of forty cents a hundred miles or less for passenger and suburban service was asked, and it was declared by the engineers that this would place their pay back at about the figure they received before the great strike.

Oakland Storm Center

The eyes of the entire system of western railroads are upon Oakland in watching the development of strike feeling or the reverse, and it remained for Oakland to give forth the news today of some of the secret negotiations carried on between the conference committee of managers and the grand officers and general chairmen in charge of the western movement for the engineers.

Some of the correspondence that passed between these officials, and which resulted in the defeat of the engineers at Chicago early this month, is published for the first time in any newspaper, in THE TRIBUNE today.

Strike Is Favored

The strike ballot received in Oakland is one of the instruments through which Warren S. Stone, grand chief engineer of the Brotherhood, and his advisers, are to determine the sentiment of the 50,000 odd men on the Western roads, after which the head officials will decide whether there will be an industrial contest.

If the feeling elsewhere is identical with that in Oakland division there is little doubt that a strike will be called.

In answer to the engineers' demands for a 15 per cent increase, the railroad managers came back with an offer of an increase amounting to about 10 cents a day.

The Western engineers are now receiv-

Wife Murderer Suspect Arrested in Kansas City

The authorities in Kansas City have been wired to hold him.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 18.—Castigating furiously right and left and with a careworn expression on his face, Andrew Brown was arrested here today as he stepped from a train that had just arrived from the city, who will start east tomorrow to bring him back.

He had been held since the morning of Saturday from the gaunt fears that had oppressed him brought tears to his eyes as an officer approached him and read to him a telegram from the city of police of San Francisco stating that he was wanted for wife murder.

DENIES THE CRIME.

"I did not kill my wife," Brown said to the police state. "She wanted to work in a restaurant at night and I did not want her to. We quarreled and then she shot herself. She took her revolver from my pocket and shot herself. We were alone. I was afraid I would be blamed, so I picked up the revolver and ran."

"I took the first train out of San Francisco and went south. I've been dodging here and there ever since."

"It has been awful to feel that you are being watched all the time. I've imagined every seatmate was a detective. Every person I met was a spy who spoke to me until I seemed I could not stand it any longer."

Brown told a story of a posse trying to capture him in Oklahoma. He could not tell how he escaped and the officers hear believe that fear of arrest subjected him to mental hallucinations.

His Life Stretched Far Over the Century Mark

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 18.—Juan Burrol, a Mexican, who, it is claimed, was 122 years old, died this morning at his home in the hills of relatives at Los Angeles, east of San Diego. Death was due to extreme age.

Burrol was born in Sonora, Mex., and was an uncle of a former constable at El Cajon. He had lived in the El Cajon valley for many years and removed later to San Diego.

It is not known in this city what part he played in the history of the city.

The age as given to the undertaker is declared to be authentic.

RAILROAD ENGINEERS THREATEN TO STRIKE

ing an average pay of $4 per hundred miles. An increase of 15 per cent was originally asked.

The increase desired would raise their pay approximately from $150 to $175 per month.

Trainmen to Combine

The Brotherhood of Trainmen and the Order of Railroad Conductors on the same Western road are preparing to demand an increase of more than 25 per cent, and it is expected that they will support the engineers in an initial fight for an increase if one is authorized. As there are 65,000 engineers in the Brotherhood throughout the United States and Canada, the 23,000 not included in the Western system are counted upon to lend their support.

At this this majority vote is required for the strike ballot in order to bring about a strike, and the ballots are to be returned to the grand chief engineer's office by December 1.

Statement of Terms

The final statement of terms sent to Chairman Scott of the committee of managers by Grand Chief Engineer, Stone, was as follows:

"Great Northern Hotel.

"Chicago, Ill., Nov. 4, 1910. Mr. W. B. Scott, Chairman Conference Committee, 605 Western Union Building, City."

"Dear Sir—Your letter of November 8d received, and I am directed to make the following reply, conveying the lowest figures they are willing to accept:

"Through freight service—Your offer of $6.50 per hundred miles or less will be acceptable (except on simple engines with cylinders 24 inches or over in diameter and compound engines, except Mallets, weighing 200,000 pounds or over on drivers), we request a differential of 25 cents per hundred miles or less higher than the next highest rate in same class of service on each particular road.

"On Mailer service we request passenger service $6.50 per hundred miles or less. All other classes of service $6.75 and $7.50 per hundred miles or less, ten hours or less. A mail freight paragraph E, article 1, of your letter of November 8, 1910, will be acceptable.

"Your offer for pusher, helper, transfer and mixed train service will be acceptable.

"Article 2—Request that the minimum rate for motor cars shall be the present minimum passenger rate on all roads where such is used; one hundred miles or less will constitute a day. Overtime, after 8 hours, to be paid for at the rate of 12½ miles per hour, seniority rules to govern.

"Article 3—Switch engineers, all yards, $4.25 per day ten hours or less.

"Article 9—Withdrawn.

"After inviting your careful consideration with the liberal concessions herein contained, I am instructed to inform you this is our final proposition.

"By order of the committee,

"W. S. STONE, G. C. E."

"Chicago, Nov. 5, 1910. Mr. Warren S. Stone, Grand Chief Engineer, B. of L. E., Chicago, Ill. "Great Northern Hotel, Chicago, Ill., Nov. 5, 1910. Mr. W. S. Scott, Chairman, Conference Committee of managers, 605 Western Union building, city."

"Dear Sir—Your letter of November 8 received and I am directed to make the following reply:

"The Chairman's association have made every honorable concession possible in the hope of reaching an amicable settlement. It is very evident this was not appreciated by the conference of managers.

"This is to notify you we cancel and recall all modified proposals that have been submitted in trying to reach a settlement since October 2, and make an immediate presentation of that date. Same will be once passed before the individual members for them to say whether or not they are willing to support the organization to the extent of a strike is necessary in order to support our requests.

"W. S. STONE, G. C. E."

Railroads Are Firm

"Chicago, Nov. 7, 1910. Mr. Warren S. Stone, Grand Chief Engineer, B. of L. E., Chicago, Ill."

"Dear Sir—The managers' committee direct the following reply to your letter of November 5:

"It is a matter of regret that your committee cannot set the way clear to accept the very liberal offer made by the managers' committee. Should your committee decide to refer the matter to the individual employees for their acceptance or rejection, and in case the managers' committee direct you to receive advice of the decision of the employee referred to. Will you be kind enough to acknowledge receipt of this letter?

"By order of the Conference committee of managers,"

"W. S. STONE, Chairman."

Make Matters Public

"Great Northern Hotel, Chicago, Ill., Nov. 7, 1910.

"Mr. W. S. Scott, Chairman, Conference Committee of Managers, 605 Western Union Building, City."

"Dear Sir—Your letter of November 8 received and I am directed to make the following reply:

"You are evidently mistaken as to the question to be referred to the individual members. We would invite your attention to our letter of November 5 as fully outlining our position.

"As it will be impossible to keep this matter out of the press when we start to take the vote, we understand the mutual agreement between us regarding giving out anything to the press to longer exists.

"We will notify you December 12 the result of the vote.

"By order of the committee,

"W. S. STONE, G. C. E."

FEDERATION PLANS TO END DISPUTE

Electrical Workers' Controversy Must Be Settled, Declare Leaders.

ST LOUIS Nov 18.—The controversy between the two factions of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers was settled before the annual convention of the A. F. of L. as a special order when today's session began. Leaders of the factions said the trouble must be settled before the convention did any other work.

The Electrical Workers' dispute is one of three far-reaching questions before the convention, the others being the granting of a charter to the Western Federation of Miners and the status of the labor organization in Canada.

The machinists object to the granting of a charter to the western miners because the miners want to have the jurisdiction of the machinists employed in the western mines. Thirty-nine thousand electrical workers are involved in the dispute for recognition of the warring factions.

ON TRIAL FOR ARSON

SAN FRANCISCO Nov 18.—The trial of Mrs Mary F. Harper accused of setting fire to the Hibernia Hotel was begun in Department 12 of the Superior Court today. Mrs. Harper was herself severely burned in the blaze which started in her room, in one of numerous rooms occupied in the shape of the National Packing Company.

In announcing his inability to sit in the case Judge Landis gave no hint of his possible action on the venue argument. It lies within his power to refuse certification to the circuit court and instead to transfer it as dean of the district court to another district judge.

Shortly after his announcement Judge Landis put off until November 23 further arguments. The question at issue is shall Judge Landis certify to the circuit court the whole case against the packers or will he refuse such certification compelling the defendants to accept trial before a district judge.

SEEK VALUE OF OFFICIAL HONESTY

Government to Test Employees to Satisfy the Bonding Companies.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—How many government officials are honest and what it is worth to insure their honesty are questions that will be heard on a scientific basis shortly after Congress convenes next month. Experts in the service of the Congress have spent much time recently in attempting to reduce the answers to a few concrete figures. Their work is supposed to be drawing to a close. It will cost about $10,000.

The question arose to the bonding of the government officials. About a year ago several officials appealed to Congress to raise their salaries because the bonding companies had increased the cost of their bond to such extent that it made their salaries look like withered autumn leaves. For instance, one man's predecessor played the race at Bennington and his surety paid the fiddler, whose bill amounted to about $10,000.

PAYS 15 PER CENT.

The successor was compelled to pay about 15 per cent of his salary in order to induce a surety or bonding company to run the risk of his following in the footsteps of his predecessor.

Chairman Tawney of the House Committee on Appropriations proposed to limit the amount to be paid for bonding government officials. That called down the wrath of the twenty or more bonding companies throughout the United States. A hearing resulted. The government agencies made more complaints about the increase in rates and the surety companies kicked about the government officials being so stingy with statistics and other information concerning the departments.

The result was the appointment of a committee by the House and Senate to investigate the whole subject. This committee hired a corps of experts to go over the field, figure out the percentage of faithless officials and the cost of insuring the government against loss from them.

Bullet Believed to Have Been

Kills Man.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 18.—Edward Morris, 42 years old, head of a real estate company, died yesterday from the effects of a pistol wound, believed to have been inflicted accidentally. He was found unconscious in the basement of his home. Several old revolvers, part of a collection he had gathered, were found on the floor. One of these had recently been discharged and the coroner believes that while examining it Morris shot himself. He came to Seattle ten years ago from Kentucky, where he was prominent in local politics. He was the first mayor of Glasgow, Ky., having been elected to office when that town was incorporated.

WILLIAM SPROULE
WELLS-FARGO DIRECTOR

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—William Sproule, for many years freight traffic manager of the Southern Pacific company, has been elected president and director of the Wells Fargo Express company in New York to succeed the late Colonel Dudley Evans.

Frederick D. Underwood, president of the Erie railroad, who has been managing director of the Wells Fargo company since the death of Evans, resigned at the meeting in New York yesterday, but will retain his membership in the direction.

T. N. Schumacher, assistant traffic director of the Herman Hines at Chicago, is said to be slated as Sproule's successor as traffic manager for the Guggenheim companies.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH

A Pleasant, Simple, But Safe and Effectual Cure For It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to be removed. The usual symptoms are a full or bloated sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, sickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, excited cough and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, indrawn condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanson, the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Distaste, Aspirin, Peppermint, Golden Seal and fruit essences. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. R. S. Workman, Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, where the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribe for me for three years for catarrh of stomach without success, but I can thank the talents of man after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, indigestion, sour stomach, heartburn and flatulence after meals.

MARTINEZ, Nov. 18.—In a stabbing affray near a resort on the water front early yesterday morning, two men were severely wounded, one of them perhaps fatally. The men are Frank Botts, who was stabbed in the abdomen, and his companion, John Veale, who was stabbed in the leg. Both are in critical condition and Irving Powers, who managed to stagger to the resort despite a dozen knife wounds, and give the alarm. Two laborers on the Santa Fe are being sought by Sheriff Veale as suspects.

Tolstoy Recalls Medieval Romance.

Count Tolstoy irresistibly reminds one of Gerard in "The Cloister and the Hearth." Charles Reade's imaginary character was not more a creature of contradictory emotions than the great Russian novelist. Temperamentally, the resemblance between the two is startling. The living genius fulfills the imaginary type in every particular.

He has the same devotional spirit, monastic and ascetic in its cravings, coupled with domestic inclination and family love, that Reade pictured in Gerard. By mortifying the flesh alone is he able to soothe perturbation of spirit. By denying himself comforts and luxuries does he express his sympathy with the privations, sorrows and sufferings of the poor.

Of course time and place and condition cause Tolstoy to appear different to the casual eye from Gerard. But the difference is superficial. Tolstoy's naked soul is the same as Reade's Fleming. He loves domestic happiness, the joys of home, the companionship of kindred, but his devotional spirit makes him an ascetic. His religion drives him to the austerity of the monk. He combines the qualities of a loving father and tender husband with those of a religious recluse. He differs from Gerard only as the Slav differs from the Teuton.

The average person reading "The Cloister and the Hearth" finds the character of Gerard incredible. Yet Gerard is pictured as living in a time when monasticism was accepted as the highest exemplification of holiness. Tolstoy is the product of a modern age. An aristocrat by birth, born to affluence, given the advantages of a liberal education and happily wedded, he has remained a religious recluse in his soul.

Despite his wife and children he is spiritually a monk; and finally religious exaltation, coupled with grief over his estrangement from the church in which his faith is centered, has caused him to abandon his home and family to spend his remaining days as an ascetic, in penance and privation. He is striving to get nearer to God while yet a dweller on earth. He is as much the victim of a highly wrought imagination as Gerard was, and the story of his recent wanderings is striking testimony to the wonderful grasp the English novelist had on the workings of the human mind. Tolstoy is an incarnation of the hero of "The Cloister and the Hearth." In religion he is a medievalist.

In the thirteenth census San Francisco ranks eleventh in number of inhabitants. In the twelfth census she ranked ninth. But her loss of rank is only temporary, and may be ascribed to the great disaster she suffered in 1906 more than anything else. Pittsburgh was enabled to pass her by annexing the city of Allegheny with 129,000 inhabitants. Detroit, which has also taken precedence, gained by annexation. In 1920 San Francisco will send both of them to the rear.

It is suggested by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce that the Legislature be urged to form a Congressional district of Alameda county exclusively. While such action is extremely desirable and probable, it is somewhat premature to urge the Legislature to redistrict the State before Congress has made the decennial apportionment. The Legislature will have to know how many Representatives will be allotted to California before it can redistrict the State. Alameda county contains approximately 250,000 inhabitants. The highest ratio yet suggested for the new apportionment is 225,000. This county therefore has more than enough people to entitle it to a Congressman. The cities of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and the towns of Emeryville, Piedmont and Albany contain 225,000 inhabitants—enough to make a Congressional district without counting the rural population. But in this matter the Legislature must wait on Congress.

The election in Chicago proves to be a political lockout. Over 4000 Republicans lose their jobs.

San Francisco's showing in the census is good enough without trying to stuff it with the population of the Alameda cities. There is no sense in pretending that Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda are a part of San Francisco.

"The Republicans must decide soon to be something complete—sapidly," remarks the Springfield Republican. "They must be conservative or radical or 'middlin.' They can't be all three and win the next Presidential election." Nothing truer was ever said. It is evident that the Republican party, as a national organization, must stand for some fixed definite policy if it is to hold public confidence. It cannot divide into factions, each with a different theory of national policy, and hope to elect the next President. The Democrats found the tariff the weak point in the Republican defense, and on that concentrated their efforts. It was precisely this weak point that many Republicans assisted the Democrats in attacking. Republicans must live up in defense of the protective system or see the party go down to defeat in 1912.

According to his sworn statement, Henry L. Stimson, the Republican candidate for Governor in New York, spent only $1292 in his campaign. But he got no more than he paid for. His vote was as modest as his expense bill.

The talk of impeaching Secretary Ballinger is mere vapor. It originated with insurgent Republicans who have been attacking Ballinger for months, and was evidently inspired by the hope of setting the Democrats on to make a foolish attempt on the Secretary's place in the cabinet. While a Democratic House might vote to impeach it requires a two-thirds majority in the Senate to convict. It would be a hopeless undertaking from the start, and would bring out a display of partisanship that would disgust the country. If the Democrats wish to make a tactical blunder they will follow the suggestion of the Pinchotites and try to impeach Ballinger.

Complete returns from the First District show that Congressman Englebright has been defeated for re-election by Judge Raker, Democrat. Insurgency must be credited with this result.

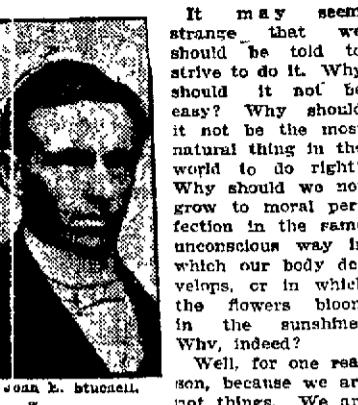

The proposal to tax every automobile in the State $10 a year, the money to be spent by the State Engineer in road improvement, is a good one if it can be legally carried out. Such a tax would be discriminating in character, and hence it may not be legal to levy it. However, the proposal comes from the automobile club of Sacramento, and is a suggestion in the interest of the sale and use of automobiles. The motor car is making the people comprehend the value of good roads. Bad roads spoil the pleasure of auto riding and depreciate the value of motor cars. Economy and pleasure combine therefore in urging highway improvement.

No wonder Vice-President Sherman laughs whenever anybody says "frazzle."

The Great Struggle

By JOHN E. STUCHELL, Pastor of Church of Piedmont.

"Strive to enter at the straight gate."—Luke 13: 24.

John E. StucHELL.

It may seem strange that we should be told to strive to do it. Why should it not be easy? Why should it not be the most natural thing in the world to do right?

Why should we not grow to moral perfection in the same unconscious way in which our body develops, or in which the flowers bloom in the sunshine? Why, indeed?

Well, for one reason, because we are not things. We are persons, and the perfections that things grow into we must acquire.

From that very freedom of choice by which our personality is safeguarded, emerge duties and tasks of which lower orders of existence know nothing.

This is the rule everywhere else.

Those young men who contended for the victory on the gridiron at Berkley last week, was it an easy thing for them to step into the field and carry off the laurels? Though it might appear so, it was really the result of weeks and months of training, of self-denial, of dogged perseverance. So in the realm of business, or art, or letters. Success comes only as the result of a tremendous struggle, in which many go down for who wins.

We should not be surprised then, when the Great Teacher tells us that we must strive to enter the Kingdom of heaven.

It is the grandest of all possessions, it is the summum bonum of all human effort, and it is only appropriate that the struggle by which it is gained should be the most intense of all—the life-long struggle between the good and the bad; the steady subordinating of the lower to the higher, of the temporal to the eternal, of convenience or pleasure to duty.

People used to think that the Kingdom was some aggregate of blessings thrust upon those only partially willing to receive them, they stated them in terms of bulk, or duration. The modern conception is that, like everything else that is desirable, the Kingdom of heaven is an acquisition which the individual may, or may not, gain. In other words, immortality is not, perhaps, inherent and necessary; but the attainment of those who wisely use the opportunities that earth affords them, of those who seek to enter into harmony with God, to understand his purpose for them, and to do his will, o. those, in short, who are really earnest and sincere in their determination to be good, and to do good at all costs; and who assure their entrance into a future heaven by the heavenly tempter that they have here attained.

This is a struggle worth while: to float, to glide with the tide or wind—a mollusk, or a fool can do that.

Political Comment

The Democrats are triumphant, though not everywhere as the result of inherent strength. They profited greatly from Republican divisions. Their ticket, State and Congressional, polled many Republican votes. In office the party must hold this support in order to have a future. Undoubtedly an effort will be made to do this. The conservative leaders will counsel caution at every step, keeping an eye on the business world as well as on the everyday political world. The task will be a test of the wisest and firmest Democrats in the country, in office and out—Washington Star.

However strong insurgency may be in the West, it was evident that the new nationalism as interpreted by Mr. Roosevelt struck no responsive chord in the East—Philadelphia Ledger.

No, the Colonel didn't speak in Pennsylvania—Washington Post.

"We'll beat 'em to a frazzle," he said in his way to Saratoga. If he meant to be a prophet for the Democratic party, he was a true one. The Republican party has been beaten to a frazzle in this State through his insufferable insistence upon supplanting the party with his personality—Albany Journal.

The Colonel may well say with Henry Clay, "I can get more people to listen to me and less people to vote for me than any other man in the country."—Rochester Union and Advertiser.

Joy is killed out of our lives when we forget and lose our head, and rather than feel happy we choose to shed tears instead; when we are slaying our good cheer we are not praying for our good here and now.

The good man may get the very best results out of the worst kind of associations, while the bad man will often gather to himself the most evil from sacred surroundings; man absorbs his likes and discards his dislikes.

The man who talks too much may often be found to think too little; it is better to be wise in silence than to be foolish in words; man can't "make a hit" with his tongue when he is weak in thought.

Man can get the secrets from the master mind only when he manages well his own mind; the higher wisdom is never seen by man excepting he watches wisely.

You will never grow giddy if you always look through hope at the future; you are sure to get the "blues" when you put on des-pair shoes and tread the darkened road that leads to your ruin.

Man can't live long if he doesn't live as to make himself strong; man will get his tombstone before his time if he doesn't treat the law of nature as his friend.

After all, is it true that man fails simply because he may have failed to reach the limit of his vision? Failure is success when its import and lesson is well learned.

When man has lost his foothold and has fallen, he can get his second breath if only he will believe himself worthy of the best.

SUFFRAGETS ARE JAILED IN LONDON

Women Make Attack On Police Lines Guarding Parliament Buildings.

shouted defiance to the commons. A few days later a number of them secured admission to the galleries and before their object was known had unchained themselves with strong steel chains to the gratings, causing the greatest scandal by their lewd defiance of custom and of the government's action.

So persistent was their campaign that more than a dozen under the leadership of Mrs. Pankhurst were arrested and sentenced to jail. While there they refused to eat and the jail officials had to resort to stomach pumps to nourish them.

160 WOMEN JAILED.

Before the House of Lords had adjourned today 160 suffragettes and supporters and been jailed. After the women had explained themselves the arrests were made with monotonous regularity.

The women were a sorrowful sight when the battle was over. The dresses were matted with dirt; hats, bags and bits of feminine apparel and torn handkerchiefs littered the ground. It appears that Asquith had a narrow escape from the irate delegation which was admitted to the lobby. Mrs. Pankhurst and two others were conversing with his secretary when the Premier passed through the room. The women failed to recognize the minister, who, at sight of the suffragettes, immediately sought safety in the House of Lords.

NEVADA WOMAN ARRESTED.

During the battle a constable was badly gashed across the hand, apparently by a knife. Among the suffragettes arrested was Annie Martin of Nevada.

After a prolonged struggle the police cleared Parliament Square and three of the leaders of the demonstration, headed by Mrs. Pankhurst, were allowed to enter the lobby of the Chamber, where they were informed by Mr. Asquith's secretary that the Premier refused to see them and that there was no chance for a suffrage bill to be presented at the present session.

BURGLARS BREAK INTO TWO STORES

Daring Theft by Yeggman Is Reported to Oakland Detectives.

A double burglary was committed last night by a person who broke into the rear of Elliott's grocery store at 1011 Clay street, and after breaking open the cash register and wrenching the telephone box from the fall, climbed over an iron gate and wall dividing this store from the grocery establishment of Walter Meese of 1014 Clay street and looted the second place. Some small change, provisions, dry goods and other articles of value formed the plunder.

The burglary was one of the most daring committed in Oakland for several weeks. Entrance was effected by forcing a rear window of Elliott's store. A high iron gate divides the two stores, and this is plainly visible from the street through the front windows of the place. Thinking at first that no burglar would pass the place, the burglar went on his way and looted the second store, where 18 high priced pearl pocket knives, stag-handled hunting knives and other cutlery was stolen. No clue to the identity of the thieves has been discovered by the detectives.

THREE OTHERS REPORTED.

Three other burglaries were reported to the police this morning. Taking advantage of an open window in the lower story of the residence of W. J. Griffith of 57 Montecito, a burglar pried a window from the outside, scaling and entered the place last evening, obtaining jewels valued at $20. The burglary was committed during the absence of the family.

J. W. McComb of 609 Tenth street reports the pliers entered by breaking a pane of glass from a rear window. The burglars were frightened away and obtained nothing.

An unknown negro is believed to be responsible for the theft of a back over coat and hat from David Parker of 1733 Seventh street, situated in Peizer's room, having been affected by climbing over a transom. The garments were valued at $20.

Several thieves stole a gold watch, gold neck chain and other articles of jewelry from the rooms of Mrs. L. Lamphere in the St. Charles hotel during he absence, the loss being estimated at $25. In a recent fire at the Palmer house in Broadway, Mrs. F. Claudius reports the thieves stole two gold watches.

ASQUITH'S PROGRAM IS ATTACKED BY BALFOUR

Premier Outlines Work for Parliament, but Meets With Vigorous Opposition

LONDON, Nov. 18.—It is the intention of the government to pass the essential features of the budget, namely the income tax and tea duty, and remove the pauper disqualification for old age pensions and dissolve Parliament on November 28.

STATEMENT BY ASQUITH.

Presenting this program in the House of Lords today Premier Asquith said he had hoped up to the last moment that the two conferences would reach a settlement. There never had been a more sustained attempt by men of strong and conflicting consequences to find a basis of agreement upon which to build a structure promising stability. In view of the failure of the conference Asquith said it would be useless to attempt to bring about an agreement in the present parliament.

UP TO THE LORDS.

"The result is that we revert to a state of war," declared the Premier, who continued.

"The Lords will be given an opportunity of saying yes or no to the government's veto bill during the coming week."

"There is no question of amendment or transformation. It is a question of acceptance or rejection. The time has come for this controversy, which has cost the whole path of progressive legislation to be sent for final, decisive arbitration, to the national tribune."

NOT UNDER PRESSURE.

Asquith denied the assertion that the government was acting under pressure, saying he understood the charge was that pressure was being applied "by the sinister hand of the black angel of this political drama, Mr. Redmond."

Asquith then detailed the legislation which the government proposed to pass before the dissolution of parliament. He said it would be necessary to appropriate $2,000,000 to carry out the provisions of the act removing the pauper disqualification from old age pensioners, and complied by promising that if the government obtained the requisite parliamentary majority he would next year bring in a bill to provide for the payment of members of the House of Commons.

ATTACKED BY BALFOUR.

Arthur J. Balfour, leader of the opposition in the House of Commons, who made the Unionist keynote speech at Nottingham, attacked the government program as announced by the Premier today.

Speaking in the House of Commons he described the government method of procedure as "unprecedented and unconstitutional. The ministry, he said, had made up its mind that all chances of the Lords making moderate and reasonable proposals for the settlement of the question at issue before the two houses must be avoided at all hazards, and so far as possible through to a dissolution of Parliament before it would be possible for the moderates on both sides to form a judgment.

VOICES LABOR REVOLT.

George Nicholl Barnes, a labor leader, called the revolt of the laborers against the government who, he declared, had failed to meet the demand for immediate legislation to reverse the Osborne judgment. The laborers, he said, were altogether dissatisfied with the Premier's suggestion for the payment of members of the lower house as a palliative for the wrongs sustained by the trade unions through the Osborne judgment.

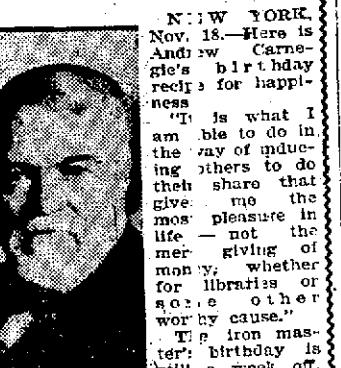

The Labor party, Barnes added, believed the government's conduct of the business of the house had not been as just as to justify giving the ministry a free hand, and that the labor members would abstain from voting if a vote was taken.

PACKERS' ASSOCIATION PLAN ANNUAL BANQUET

CARNEGIE PITIES MILLIONAIRES SON

N. Y. NOV. 18.—Here is Andrew Carnegie, Jr., birthday boy, for happiness.

"It is what I am able to do in the way of inducing others to do their share that gives me pleasure in life—not the mere giving of money, whether for libraries or some other work by cause."

The iron master's birthday is with a son of an anniversary.

Andrew Carnegie, Jr., says his son's occasion was uppermost in the minds of most of those present at a dinner given in his honor last night by the General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen on the occasion of the boy's 12th anniversary. Mr. Carnegie spoke at length of his philanthropies and again touched on his early life, writing up the observation that in his heart went out in sympathy for the sons of miners.

It was the son of poor parents, he said, who realizes what a father's and mother's love was and who had to toil hard for all he got, who was the boy to be envied.

"I am proud of my membership in this society," said Carnegie. "On looking over the great things that has accomplished I note that it founded the first free library in the city of Newark, a town I am now in, even to be a member, for the most wholesome act of my life was when I gave New York 75 libraries in one day."

"I am proud to be a member in a society of mechanics. I have worked in cellars and fired engines and so I am able to lift my hands and say truly, 'Behold these horny hands of oil!'

"And speaking of work, brings up how I pity the son of a millionaire. He does not know what a father's mother means. If the poor boy has his father and his mother, he has his guides and inspiration, the son of a scrub woman, peraps, who realizes and appreciates at his father has done for him—that is the boy who will push forward. If I had my choice, I would be the poor boy and know what a father at another mean and not the millions a son who does not know."

ASKS FOR PAPERS OF GUARDIANSHIP

Woman Declares Her Father Is Dissipating and Bank Is Restrained.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—Miss Nina Gallivan petitioned this morning for guardianship papers over the person of her father, James Gallivan, 75 years old, whose present whereabouts are unknown, but whose recent escapades have led his family to believe that he may come to some harm, or may be robbed of all his money.

Miss Gallivan lives at 375 Frederick street and until recently the father has lived in the home of a Mrs. Miller at 14 Bonita street. For fifteen years he has been retired, and according to the allegation, has been dissipating with money he drew from time to time from the Hibernal bank.

Early this month he disappeared and after searching high and low for him his daughter found him in the county jail serving a term for drunkenness. She obtained his release, but three days ago he departed from sight again after drawing more money, and no one knows where he is.

Today Judge Morgan issued a restraining order prohibiting the Hibernal bank from paying Gallivan any further money pending the hearing.

DRUGGISTS WIN IN LABEL FIGHT

Court Says They Need Not Put On Name of Parent Substance.

WASHINGTON, N. Y., Nov. 18.—Druggists and manufacturers under the pure food law are not required to name the parent substances of a derivative when they state on the label the name and quality of the derivative according to the decision of Chief Justice Chapman in the supreme court of the District of Columbia today. In the Antikamnia case.

The court held that the secretaries of agriculture and labor, upon whom the law imposed the duty of making regulations to carry out the act, exceeded their authority when they attempted to require the manufacturing druggists to add to the name of the derivative the fact that it was derived from a parent drug, such as alcohol, cocaine, acetanilide, etc.

EMULATES RED MEN AND SETS HOME ABLAZE

HEMPSTEAD, N. Y., Nov. 18.—George Bomp, a 15-year-old school boy, is in custody at Glendale, L. I., charged with using a flame-tipped arrow to set fire to the home of a wealthy neighbor. The lad is said to have lured the mistress of the house away by telephoning to her that her little daughter was sick at school. The fire did $2000 damage.

The fire marshal declares that the boy started the fire because he had been reading novels about how Indians set fire to the cabins of their white enemies by means of fire on arrow tip.

POLITE STRANGER GETS AWAY WITH SUITCASE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—Mrs. A. Radovich of 130 K street, Sacramento, arrived here yesterday on a visit, and within five minutes after she had landed at the ferry building a suitcase, containing all of her personal effect, valued at $35, had been stolen.

When she reached the foot of Market street Mrs. Radovich walked down to 174 East street, where she left her satchel in the cigar stand of A. N. Johnson. As she stood there a man who gave his name as Eddie Holmes, Ninth and Dorr streets, got into conversation with her and escorted her to a car, as she desired to visit friends in the Mission.

Returning to the cigar stand alone he asked for "our things" and when the woman called for the suitcase last evening it was gone. The police accompanied Mrs. Radovich to Ninth and Dorr streets, but no such person as Holmes lives in the neighborhood.

TRIED FOR CRIME OF 13 YEARS AGO

Accused Slayer Who Escaped As Freight, Must Face Court.

SPRINGFIELD Mo., Nov. 18.—William Allen, alleged to have murdered Saile Gibbs at Golden, Ennix county, Missouri, 13 years ago, will be placed on trial at Carrollton, Mo., next Monday. It is charged that Allen and Gibbs quarreled over a card game and that the former slew his opponent.

Allen's escape was one of the most noted on record in this state. After he killed his relative, he hid in a box car, shipped by rail to Yermo, Lawrence county, Missouri, where the same relative received the consignment, hauling the box away from the depot.

Allen was then liberated and went west, where he remained until he was captured a few months ago. He will defend self defense.

Mme. NAZIMOVA'S ART DULLED BY IBSEN PLAY

"Little Eyolf" Smothers the Smouldering Fire in the Russian Actress.

MUST BE NO MORE THAN A SPLENDID WOMAN
Capable Company Gives Excellent Support to Stage Artist.

By LEO LEVY.

Those of you who have watched the smouldering fire in Mme. Nazimova as I fanned into flame by greater things than "Little Eyolf" are better able to agree with the reputation New York has given her than we who sat through three acts of Ibsen at the Macdonough last night. We saw only a spindly woman chafing at lines that bound her art within her, a tigress pacing her cage, vainly seeking egress from a stage-form the while human, forever sealed except

It is out-Ibsened in "Little Eyolf." The dull gray of his plays that have gone before is turned to black in this. Naturally the dramatist of the will and the intangible he worked on both once more, produced human characters put work-a-day words in their mouths and placed them in natural surroundings. Then he took an everyday situation and worked it out in his own rare way. Natural and unnatural, uncanny and of this world, all of it as much a paradox as Ibsen's "Little Eyolf" is as dark, dismal cold and dank as the cliff in Almei's peak after dusk has fallen. The playwright has forced the bitter drops of his cup of life into the mouths of his puppets.

GLORIOUS OF HER SEX.

Mme. Nazimova portrays one of the most glorious of her sex, big, strong, healthy, a tropical plant demanding all of the love of a husband who is devoted to his child. She is the clinging creature who asks the deepest affection and ice lives on cold indifference.

Then appears the rat-wife whose life-work it is to lure rodents to the water, riding cities and homes of the pests. Ibsen's "Eyolf" the crippled child of the couple charmed by the story she tells fell over on his crutch and is drowned in his blood.

Even in death the boy is a barrier between husband and wife. Allmers taunts the woman with the knowledge that he never loved her that he married her for his gold and green forest. They wrangle with destino, the spirits of the dead child intervening, the both. The old man suggests suicide, but both turn from that. And then when all else fails they agree to join hands and intercede with the gods as they find it.

PAINTS REAL CREATURE.

Nazimova paints Rita Allmers with a brush that is life itself. Her technical skill makes of the puppet a character that stands out among stage creatures her wonderfully mobile face mirrors the struggles with which her eyes flesh speak storms as when wills, but her art is smothered and her opportunity dimmed so can well understand why even Nazimova was not able to keep "Little Eyolf" alive in New York for more than forty performances.

Fredrich Truman as Alfred Allmers sits with the star honor that he won by sheer force of merit. His work is to be honored for he has a struggle with him and personally that would make most actors hesitate.

CREATURE OF FANCY.

Rita Allmers Alfred's younger half-sister as portrayed by Elsie Esmond, is a creature of Ibsen's fancy who must act a sorrow with the cause of it looked within her and held there with no chance to explain in the play wears its part. Miss Gertrude Berkley as the maid with the star honor that he won by sheer force of merit. His work is to be honored for he has a struggle with him and personally that would make most actors hesitate.

OUR UNIVERSITY SCHOLAR will tell you that a play to be sure, must have at least two elements—the clash of will and the clash of the physical. "Little Eyolf" is all of that. Here alone is a struggle between mind and mind and between mind and the infinite. The physical is relegated to the things that were. It is a joyless play at its best and not dedicated to keep art alive or the world whirling.

CAVALIER JUST LITTLE GIRL, DECLARER DIVA

Nordica Rushes to Defense of Friend, While Brother Denies Agreement.

Home for Girls As Memorial to Mother.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Crescent Cavalier, brother of the prima donna who married "Sheik Bob" Chanler, arrived in New York yesterday on the George Washington. His face flushed and he showed signs of anger when questioned regarding his sister's trouble with the Chanler family.

"The Changers have made several propositions to my sister Libby," he said. "They want to get back that paper, that agreement. They don't care if she stays in Europe or comes to America, but they do want that agreement that her husband signed."

He declared "ridiculous" the statement that the Changers had told the singer $20,000 to stay in Europe. He explained that she had undergone no surgical operations, was well and safe and would leave France for America about December 1.

"She is a poor little girl who wanted a husband and a home and she has been cruelly treated," said Mrs. Libbie Nordica, who arrived on the same vessel. "Mme. Cavalier was my guest three weeks ago. I don't think that Mme. Cavalier got any money from Mr. Chanler."

PACIFIC SLOPE CONGRESS IS PERMANENTLY ORGANIZED

GILLETT IS THE PRESIDENT OF BODY

Election Follows Adoption of Constitution Which Sets Forth Aims.

Former Commissioner of Navigation Addresses Meeting On "Merchant Marine."

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—The Pacific slope congress assembled this morning with an enlarged attendance of delegates and completed its organization by the adoption of the constitution and set of by-laws, enthusiastically electing Governor James N. Gillett as the first president appointing a board of electors who are to select a secretary and adopting a series of resolutions with reference to the Panama-Pacific exposition, the location of a fleet of battleships on the Pacific ocean, and the strengthening of the military forces on the Pacific slope by additional regiments of infantry.

This work consumed nearly all the morning, the only paper read being that of Judge William W. Bates, former commissioner of navigation, on "A Subsidy for National Shipping."

GOVERNOR GILLETT PRESIDES.

The meeting was called to order by Governor Gillett. Soon after the call to order the permanent constitution was unanimously adopted. The name of the organization is to be the Pacific Slope Congress. There are to be three classes of members, honorary, because of the official position the candidates hold corporate members, consisting of boards of trade, merchant exchanges and similar bodies; and the third class of commercial and individual members.

The affairs are to be conducted by a board of directors comprising the president, who is to be the presiding officer together with one vice-president from each of the ten states and territories forming the congress, and thirteen directors, four of whom are to be directors at large.

At any annual congress amendments are proposed to the constitution, but may not be voted upon at that meeting. The amendments are to be forwarded in mail to each member and each member is then to file by mail his vote on the proposition with the directors, majority ruling.

GILLETT IS ELECTED.

As soon as the constitution had been adopted Governor Gillett was, on motion of a delegate from Oregon, elected first president with great deal of enthusiasm. In assuming the chair he said:

"I wish to say that I am pleased to be the first president of this Pacific Slope Congress. I believe it will do a great deal of good for the Pacific Coast, as well as for the merchant marine of this country and State, if all the members display the interest which they have shown during this convention, and I know they will."

Delegates were then elected for two years as follows:

Joseph Scott, San Francisco; Captain E. W. Johnson, Alaska; John V. Lamp Arizone; Governor Frer, Honolulu; Governor J. H. Grady, Idaho.

Vice-presidents were then elected for one year as follows:

A. B. Manley of Oregon; Governor F. D. Odde of Nevada; Governor Spry of Utah; Knapp of Arizona; Reby of San Francisco; Mills of New Mexico.

A committee of seven was appointed for the purpose of naming electors a follows:

Denton of Oakland, Manley or Oregon; McCrory of Nevada; Jensen of Utah; Knapp of Arizona; Reby of San Francisco; Mills of New Mexico.

A committee of seven was appointed for the purpose of naming electors a follows:

Governor Gillett then retired from the chair temporarily and his place was assumed by Governor Odde of Nevada. A resolution by R. P. Troy of San Francisco pledging the several states and territories to the support of the merchant marine, was adopted.

Congressman Bartlett of Nevada was then introduced and endorsed the purpose of the convention.

DIRECTORS ARE ELECTED.

The directors were then elected as follows:

H. P. Wood, Honolulu; F. W. George, Eureka; H. J. Darling, Reno; S. A. Perkins, Tacoma; J. F. Elson, Red Bluff; E. Cobb, Boise City, Idaho; F. C. Savage, Portland; Rufus Chatte, San Diego; Joy H. Johnson, Salt Lake; J. E. Wickham of Los Angeles.

Directors at large were chosen as follows:

F. B. Anderson, San Francisco; T. D. Phelps, San Francisco; H. C. Capwell, Oakland; William Gerstle, San Francisco.

A battleship fleet for the Pacific Coast and the addition of 25 regiments of infantry and a proportionate increase of the field artillery and cavalry were urged upon congress in a resolution adopted to-day by the Pacific congress.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED.

The resolution follows:

Resolved, That we respectfully urge upon congress to take immediate steps to provide suitable naval bases, properly equipped for the use and maintenance of a battleship fleet on the Pacific Coast. And we further respectfully urge the regular army of the United States be increased by at least 25 regiments of infantry and proportionate

KILLS HERSELF ON THE EVE OF WEDDING

Girl Commits Suicide While Her Sweetheart Is Securing Marriage License

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—With his fiance, David Nathan, was in the county building getting a marriage license for the wedding that was to be taken place yesterday, Miss Anna Neberg, the bride-to-be, committed suicide, following a quarrel with her prospective mother-in-law, who, on learning of the wedding plans, objected.

REMAINED IN FLAT.

Miss Neberg came to the flat which Nathan had furnished and met him about noon. She was to accompany him to the marriage license bureau but decided to remain and tidy up the flat. It was then Nathan told her that his mother had advised him to stay at the lat but to come with him, saying that his mother might come and make trouble.

GIRL KILLS HERSELF.

Miss Neberg protested that she was not afraid and Nathan left. An hour afterward, according to the story told by Thomas Cairns, a watchman, the mother entered the flat. Words followed and a shot was fired. Cairns ran in and found Miss Neberg lying across a couch with a revolver in her hand. Blood was streaming from a wound in her right temple. She was removed to the county hospital where she died in a few hours.

POTTER'S EXCUSE.

Superintendent Potter's excuse for the change is that it became necessary in order to relieve the car congestion at Seventh street and Broadway, which had become almost impossible to handle on Saturday, Sundays and every evening after 5 o'clock.

Of course, the real cause of the congestion at Seventh street and Broadway is attributable to the fact that the cars of only two lines of the Oakland Traction Company's system centering in Broadway are run down to Water street, namely, the San Pablo and Telegraph avenue cars. The cars of these two lines are compelled by the terms of the franchises which they acquired from the Council of 1889-91. That Council adopted the policy of making the running of the

MERCHANTS COMPLAIN ABOUT CAR CHANGES

Many Protests Registered Over Stopping of Three Lines at Tenth, Causing Intolerable Inconvenience to the Public

With the completion of the reconstruction of the Oakland Traction Company's tracks on Broadway, south of the junction of that thoroughfare with Telegraph avenue, the transportation department of the corporation has readjusted the running schedule of the various branch lines and made Tenth street and Broadway the southern terminal of the Piedmont avenue, Shattuck avenue and College avenue cars. At that point, the cars of these three lines are switched over to the other lines running north and south or to some point on the line of the eastern extension of Eighth street must either make two transfers or walk from one to two blocks to make one transfer. Those passengers picked up on the way by these three branch car lines who desire to make connection with the Seventh street local must either transfer for three blocks or walk. Anyone riding on the cars of either of the three lines desiring to trade or do other business south of Tenth street must either travel on Seven's mare or transfer.

In any case, the change in the operation of the lines of the traction company has created an intolerable public inconvenience and nuisance. It was inaugurated once before and abandoned because of the widespread complaint made by the patrons of the three lines directly affected and the strong protest lodged by owners of property south of Tenth street and tradesmen located on Broadway south of Tenth. The merchants tenanted stores south of Tenth street complained because the change materially reduced their trade, and the owners of business property south of that point clearly saw a prospective reduction of rents facing them if the discrimination against them was continued.

BODY OF MAN FOUND HIDDEN IN TRUNK

Mystery Shrouds Identity of Corpse Discovered in a Cellar.

It Was Hidden in Hermetically Sealed Reception; There for Five Years.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Pending an inquest planned for today on the body which was found in an hermetically sealed trunk in the cellar of a West Fifty-fourth street apartment house, the authorities were not inclined to theorize.

Even the sex of the victim was not known at first, the five years or more during which the body is known to have reposed in its hiding-place having reduced it almost to a skeleton. From outward indications, however, the authorities are of the opinion that the body is that of a man.

Early today the body—discovered by Phillip Meagher when he was preparing to move yesterday after eight years' residence in the house, and opened the neglected trunk—was taken to the morgue.

JAMMED INTO TRUNK.

It was found that the body had been jammed in the trunk and surrounded with quantities of plaster of Paris and paper.

The only clue is the name of W. Lewis, which appears on the outside of the trunk. Lewis was a boarder in the Meagher family up to about six years ago.

He told Meagher on going away that he would leave the trunk and call for it some time. A zinc tank inside the trunk fits perfectly.

At the morgue Coroner's Physician Lehane, with Prot. John McAlister of Bellevue made an examination of the body and found it to be that of a man. The surgeons declare that the victim was placed in the trunk while still alive and death resulted from asphyxiation. The condition of the remains indicated this.

CHARITY CAMPAIGN

Eloquent Leaders of Berkeley Undertake Task of Raising $12,000.

BERKELEY, Nov. 18.—Cyrus Street of Berkeley appeared before the board of directors of the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce last evening and delivered an address in which he proposed that an annual peace conference similar to that held each year at Mohonk New York, be held in Berkeley. The speaker in his connection proposed the building of a highway from Washington City to Berkeley with the money to be raised if navy and army appropriations are cut from the national budget. The matter was referred to a committee composed of W. J. Mortimer, H. D. Irwin, E. T. Harms, A. W. Compton and H. F. Edwards.

Frederick H. Clark, chairman of the finance committee, submitted a report, as follows: "We have examined the books and accounts of the secretary for the year ending November 5, 1910, and the balance in the hands of the treasurer agrees with the balance shown on the cash book. The vouchers are properly audited and entered on the voucher book, which contains a full statement of the application of each claim, and are duly on file. All receipts for dues and subscriptions tally with the duplicate numbered receipts on file. The excellent system employed by the secretary in handling the financial accounts of this body makes the work of our committee a pleasure. All bills are paid by check, both vouchers and checks being numbered consecutively. It would seem to us to be difficult to devise a more simple and effective system for the work of this office, and we take additional pleasure in commanding the executive office both for the continuing execution of his work and for the strict economy exercised in his disbursing the funds of this body."

Notice was given of the date for the holding of the convention of commercial bodies—in Oakland, January 6 and 7, at which "Methods of California Development" will be the general theme of discussion.

Among the new members recently en-rolled are W. A. Shattock, H. V. Rodgers, Don W. Roberts, Judge E. H. McCormick, B. J. Williams, E. Gathen Mac- ginn.

Progress was reported in the plans for planting trees on Goat Island, the Forest Bureau stating that 14,000 young trees are ready for planting, and operations will begin next week.

Members of the board stated that there is a great demand for tickets to the annual dinner of the Chamber of Commerce which will be given at the new Hotel Shattuck on the 15th of next month.

To adequately maintain the work of these charities $1000 a month will be necessary.

It is proposed to raise the whole amount for the year, or $10,000, during the Thanksgiving season. This coming Saturday—November 18—is Berkeley's Charity Day.

"Provided this $10,000 is secured, no further calls for the maintenance of these organizations will be made during the coming year. All applications for char-ties made to you may be referred to these organizations, with the remark, 'I am giving this year through the Organized Charities.' They will investigate every case and minister intelligent relief. In the past they have done splendid work, and next year, in their new quarters, 1910 Eddy street, they should do more effective service.

"If you knew that a child came hungry to school because there was nothing to eat, would you not want to help him? If you knew that boys and girls stay away from school because of the lack of proper garments or shoes you would want to clothe them. Many times these things have occurred in Berkeley. Your money will go directly to feed the hungry and clothe the poor. Some of you can easily give $25, only $2 a month; others can give ten, others five, some only one dollar. Each can give something to help those less fortunate.

"On Charity Day volunteer collectors will call at your home for contributions. Try to give with liberality, not giving their own money also, as well as their time, in a service sometimes not wholly agreeable. Sign one of the subscription cards, to be paid as you desire. If you wish to pay cash the collector will mark it off on the card. Please give as freely as possible, for all that you give will be well and wisely used, and you will be blessed in the giving of it.

JUDGE THREATENS
'DYNAMITE QUEEN'

Mrs. Martin Given Choice of 30 Days in Jail or Sticking to the Case.

During the course of the Isabelle Martin trial this morning Judge Wells threatened to give the "Queen of the Dynamiters" a vacation from her legal labors for thirty days, which time Mrs. Martin would have to stay in the county jail if she did not cease to interpolate extraneous remarks into her examination of witnesses.

The threat came from the court while Mrs. Martin was cross-examining John Whitmore, who was a visitor at her home the night of the explosion at Judge Ogden's residence. She had asked the witness a question concerning his testimony at her former trial to which Assistant District Attorney Hynes made an objection and Mrs. Martin exclaimed bitterly when the court sustained the objection.

ACCUSES OFFICIALS.

She accused the district attorney's office of keeping her from seeing her witnesses and the jail officials of holding up her letters. Hynes explained to the court that the district attorney's office had forbidden a Mrs. Lindell from seeing Mrs. Martin unless a third party was present.

"I will not agree to let Marion White or any other person listen to the conversation between Mrs. Lindell and me," exclaimed Mrs. Martin.

"I will not allow the prosecution to get the testimony of my witnesses in advance."

She went on to complain of the treatment at the jail, but Judge Wells interrupted her twice to request her to resume her examination of Whitmore. Mrs. Martin paid no attention to the court's order, but went on with her tirade.

THREATENS MRS. MARTIN.

"If you persist, Mrs. Martin," said the exasperated judge, "in talking about matters that have no bearing on this case while a witness is testifying, I will continue the further hearing of this case for thirty days and you will have to remain in the county jail for that time. The way you are treated at the jail is not material to the testimony being given by this witness. Proceed with your examination."

"If you do continue the case for a month, it will give me a chance to prepare my argument," retorted Mrs. Martin. "Will you let me have a hearing before the grand jury, Judge Wells?"

"I will not," returned the court. "Proceed with the examination."

Mrs. Martin proceeded. She asked Whitmore many questions about the happenings at her home on the night of the dynamiting of the Ogden house, asking, among other things, that Baby John was absent during a part of the night and that she had accused the boy of poisoning her Shetland pony, Janet, which died that same evening.

MEMORY POOR.

Whitmore's memory was very poor and to most of the questions put to him by both Mrs. Martin and Hynes he answered that he did not remember or that he could not say. It was nearly impossible to get him to answer any questions with either a straight affirmative or negative.

He identified an affidavit that he had signed in Weaverville when District Attorney Donahue and Detective King had visited him. They were the only two persons in the town when the case against Mrs. Martin as being amased, but when he was asked if certain statements embodied in his affidavit were the statements made by him to Donahue, he said he could not remember.

After Whitmore had been excused, Harry East Miller, a dynamite expert, was called to the stand and continued to give evidence on the cause of the explosion during the early afternoon.

RANCHER THOUGHT DEAD WANDERING IN HILLS

TOMALES, Nov. 18.—Jose Fells, the rancher believed to have been attacked by Indians whom he charged with the murder of his son, was wandering in the hills back of Marshall carrying a revolver with which he threatens those who attempt to aid him. This report was made to Sheriff Taylor yesterday by deputies detailed on the case. Standing in the vicinity came across the unfortunate man early yesterday morning, but dared not approach him, as he waved the way with the pistol and threatened to shoot.

Investigations made by Deputy Sheriff Shields throw no further light on the cause of Fells' condition. Shields believes that Fells has become insane because of the mysterious death of Albert Fells, his son, and that the disturbance heard early Tuesday morning in Indian quarters was a quarrel among members of the tribe.

An attempt will be made to capture the demented man in the night if the deputies can keep him in sight at a safe distance until he lies down to sleep.

30,000 BAGS OF COFFEE SOLD TO ONE COMPANY

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 18.—What was said to be the largest single transaction in the coffee trade in the South was recorded here yesterday when 30,000 bags were sold by local brokers to a New York company. The coffee thus disposed of represented a total value of more than $600,000. It was imported from Santos, Brazil.

MURDERED MAN'S BODY DISCOVERED IN SLOUGH

ANTIOCH, Nov. 18.—The body of an unidentified man about 48 years of age, the neck broken and the hands securely bound in front of the trunk, was found floating off Daisy Island, near Antioch, yesterday morning. There were no papers or marks by which he could be identified.

Coroner C. L. Abbott removed the body to the morgue and Dr. W. S. George performed an autopsy. There is every evidence that the man was murdered and cast into the slough. He was evidently a laborer, wearing coarse clothing.

A small sum of $2.75 was found in his pocket and a watch which had stopped at 11:47. The body had been in the water ten days.

RAILROAD NEWS

OAKLAND-CHICAGO

SERVICE IMPROVED

Santa Fe Railroad Adds to the Comforts; Rock Island Has New Schedule.

The Santa Fe railroad company has announced an improved train service between Oakland and Chicago. All through trains on the United railroads are strictly trains, a fine class train, composed of the most up-to-date tourist cars. Each car is electric lighted and has commodious dressing rooms for ladies and smoking rooms for men.

The Rock Island company has announced a new train schedule from Chicago to the coast, via San Francisco to Los Angeles and round trip to San Francisco over the Southern Pacific. Trains one and two will carry up-to-date tourist cars as well as the standard coaches and, it has been said, will be the finest mixed trains to the east.

S. L. Hall, city passenger agent for the Pacific Coast Steamship company, is spending his vacation in Los Angeles. During his absence his place will be filled by E. G. Lambert from the San Francisco office.

H. T. Holmes, city passenger agent of the Western Pacific company, is conducting the members of the Transportation Club over the lines of his company today. The excursion will be from here to Portola and return.

Lee Elschitz, traveling passenger agent of the Illinois Central was in Oakland yesterday.

Many of the members of the Pacific Coast Traffic Association from this side of the bay will attend the social dance to be given in the Fairmont hotel, San Francisco, this evening.

FEAR CHINA WILL WASTE BIG LOAN

Japanese Newspapers Take Varied Views of $30,000,-000 Appropriation.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 14.—Japanese newspapers received today have many columns of comment regarding the loan by an American syndicate of $30,000,000 to China. The Liberal News Agency of Tokyo says:

The loan will no doubt tend to strengthen the position of China greatly, and it is a matter of congratulation that such a loan was farmed with America. With the vast capital left at her command China will be able to build railways throughout the country which will act as the introducer of modern civilization to the Celestial Empire.

One Japanese paper declares that the trouble with the Chinese is that they have a big loan which is not provided for educational purposes, but when the country is in a state of turmoil and trouble the people may set about to waste such big loans. When the circumstances are thus considered it will become evident that for the interest of oriental peace, the Chinese will make the best use, if possible, of the capital left at their command.

AIM TO DEVE OP.

When the development of China is regarded to be the sole aim of Japan's policy in that country, it must be admitted that the Japanese will highly appreciate the loans made by America for the purpose of helping the Chinese.

A Yokohama paper says that news of the loan has stirred up foreign press to such pitch and all kinds of complications are pointed out as the result. They are worrying over the loan being made without Japan having been previously informed; that the capitalists had made the loan without asking for any securities; that China will appoint an American financier to oversee the monetary affairs of the government.

GAYNOR CHANGES POLICE SYSTEM

Long Expected "Strike Up" in Department Worls Radical Transformation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The shake-up in the police department predicted ever since Mayor Gaynor took office, has materialized. The changes made strike at the foundations of the police department and place the entire detective force on a new footing.

Begun Saturday, there will be no more branch detective bureaus in any of the boroughs except Brooklyn. Detectives will no longer report to captains of precincts or to inspectors of districts, but to a Lieutenant captain of detectives, who will be directly responsible to the Inspector at headquarters in charge of the entire bureau, who in turn is under the second deputy commissioner, William Flynn.

DOOM OF SYSTEM.

In short, the plainclothes men, the handy man of Captain and inspectors, the ready errand boy for the system, has come to the end of his rope.

Detectives will be no part of the permanent corps and will work independently of the uniformed police.

This is the policy of the English detective force, which weks under Scotland Yard, a centralized control, and it also is in line with a policy of the secret service in this country.

More than six hundred detectives will here to adjust themselves to the new order. They will have nothing to do with gambling, disreputable houses and keeping the streets clean of soliciting, which will be looked after by a special vice-squad. Their business will be to run down criminals and nothing else. They will even refrain from making arrests whenever possible leaving that to the uniformed officer, whose face can become known to the criminal world without impairing his usefulness.

RHEUMATISM PURIFYING THE BLOOD THE ONLY PERMANENT CURE

No case of Rheumatism was ever cured except by a thorough purification of the blood; just as long as the blood remains charged with fermenting uric acid poison, the painful disease will continue. The pains and aches of Rheumatism are simply superficial effects of the impurities in the circulation, and sometimes may be temporarily relieved by the application of plasters, liniments, hot cloths, etc. But the person who trifles with this dangerous disease by depending on local treatment alone, is certain to pay for the mistake with constant suffering later on. S. S. cures Rheumatism in the only way it is possible to cure the disease. It goes down into the blood, and removes the uric acid from the circulation, so that the nerves, bones, muscles and joints are lubricated and fed with nourishing elements instead of being continually irritated and inflamed by the sharp, uratic impurity. When S. S. has cleansed and purified the blood, the pains cease, all aches cease, all inflammation disappears, stiffened muscles are made pliant, and every troublesome symptom of Rheumatism is permanently corrected. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.

FUTURE OF 'BAT'
NELSON AT STAKE

Durable Dane Must Win From Owen Moran to Show People He Is Still King.

When Battling Nelson steps into the ring at Blot's arena a week from tomorrow and faces Owen Moran he will be confronted with one of the most trying moments of his career.

A victory will mean the re-making of the Durable Dane, while a defeat will send him back among the lesser lights of the ring and all hope of forcing the so-called "Wild Cat," Ad Wolgast, into the ring will have gone.

The Battler's match with Antonio LaGrave was likewise a test, but nothing like the one he has with the little Britisher. The California boxer was little heard of outside of his own town. With Moran it is different. The native of the British Isles is well known all over the world as a boxer and a good one at that. Whatever the Battler does to Moran will be the turning point; it will either make him or break him.

Should Nelson put up one of his old-time slashing fights and bring the Englishman to earth with a knockout up would go his stock and Wolgast would be forced to meet him in the ring or go back to the farm and pass out of fistian's arena. There are many who still think Nelson was all to the good at Richmond, and Nelson thinks so himself and wants that one chance to prove it. That opportunity shall come to him if he comes out a winner next Saturday week.

NELSON TRAINING FAITHFULLY AND HARD.

No one realizes all this more than Nelson and his every endeavor is to fit himself for the match with Moran. One thing the Battler wants to do is to improve his speed, and for this reason has engaged Walter Scott as a sparring partner. Scott has the speed and will make the Battler step around to land on him.

Moran, too, realizes what a victory means to him, and his work is all that can be expected. Each day he goes through his stunts with precision and dispatch and there is never a moment of loafing. He has some difficulty in finding sparring partners and any of the rising young hopefuls of the boxing game who want a tryout are asked to report at Shannon's. The betting on the match continues at even money, with either end available.

Trying to Find Where Ketchel's Money Went

James A. Lombard of Grand Rapids, Michigan, executor of the estate of Ketchel's estate, is in New York looking up the property that Ketchel owned there. The pugilist is supposed to have purchased a number of realty and other chattels are also being looked for. An automobile, radio, piano and other chattels are also being looked for. Lombard says that among Ketchel's private papers he found evidence that several thousand dollars were loaned to dead Ketchel's estate on loans that he made to friends here and in the west. Poor Stanley was an easy mark. He gave and loaned more than he kept.

Robert Petit, Veteran Ball Player, Dead

Robert Petit joined the National baseball club in 1882, became a member of the "Pop" Anson, and played with that team for several years, making the trip around the world with it in 1883. After leaving the team he took up residence in a number of minor leagues, including the Connecticut State League, his whole career in baseball comprising about twenty-nine years. He died a few days ago at Derby, Conn., where he had lived many years.

Willie Lewis Has Best of "Dixie Kid"

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—In a ten-round bout Willie Lewis had a narrow margin over the Dixie Kid, the welter-weight, at the National Sporting Club last night. At times it appeared as if the men were not overwilling in their exertions, both being a trifle sluggish at all times. At other times they fought hard and each was rocked by the force of the smashes they received.

MINOR LEAGUES TO MAKE BUT FEW CHANGES

Classification Bugaboo Passes On and None of the Circuits Will Be Reduced.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Indications at the meeting last night of the board of arbitration of the National Association of Professional Baseball Clubs are that the classification bugaboo will not cause the reduction of any league.

It was asserted that any leagues that could sustain claims to an advance in classification by the census would be advanced, but that population records would not be invoked to cause the reduction of any. This means that the Western League and Three I League will not be disturbed.

The board continued hearing evidence on protests and claims.

President M. H. Sexton of the Association predicted the advance of several leagues.

T. B. Jones, president of the Montgomery (Alabama) club, announced that he had secured Clarence Brooks, a catcher from Spokane.

President Murphy of the Chicago Nationals obtained the signature of Fred Toney, the big Winchester (Ky.) pitcher, who has a seventeen-inning no-hit game to his credit.

INTER-CLASS BASKETBALL SERIES BEGINS TONIGHT

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Nov. 18.—The interclass basketball series will open tonight. All four classes are to play matches in Harmon gymnasium. As the men have developed unusually strong competition this evening will be so close that no one class will be able to be developed. The juniors are to meet the sophomores, while the seniors will compete against the freshmen. The first of the games in this program will be the one of the fastest of the series, or the one won last year's championship only after a hard fight, being pressed by the Big Five. The line-ups of the teams are as follows:

Seniors—Forwards, Hart and Prouty; center, Bartlett or Bell; guards, Hardy and Muhlen.

Juniors—Forwards, Jerry and Carpenter; center, Scott; guards, Gilbert and Jones.

Sophomores—Forwards, Cleveland and Fisher; center, M. Jones; guards, Jackson and Ottoway.

Freshmen—Forwards, Tomlinson and Ottoway; center, Muehler; guards, Cook and Brown.

BALL PLAYERS GREAT FARMERS

Strange to say, the majority of the players who affair games during the off season are among the best ball players in the business. Larry Johnson has a farm just outside Cleveland. Tyrol Cobb has a farm in Georgia. Eddie Peck has a farm in Atlanta. George Clark, the Cleveland catcher, is a farmer during the off season. Bill Sullivan and Fielder Jones, both former managers of the Cleveland Indians, have small farms together in Oregon. Walter Johnson has a farm stretch in Idaho. Street is an Alabama ex-soldier of the regulars. Manager Frank Chance, the Cub pitcher, Clark Griffith and Fred Clarke are farmers. Leo Cigré and Frank Lippert have farms in Ohio. George T. Morris, former manager of the Yankees, has a grain farm in Kansas. These are just a few of the more prominent players who are engaged in farming.

FAVORITE IS SHORT IN FEATURE EVENT AT OAKLAND TRACK

The feature of yesterday's racing at the Oakland race track was the brilliant win of Jack Paine in the Yo Tambien Handicap over the five and one-half furlong course. Opposed to the Howard entry was Daddy Gip, and the public backed the Freitas gelding off the boards almost to copper the winning bracket.

Off to a good start, the Howard five-year-old dropped back to fifth place, but Garner timed his race well, and at the proper time came after the field, running them off their feet, winning by two and one-half lengths from Daddy Gip. The latter ran a swell race up to the stretch, where he quit badly. Thistle Belle had her usual early burst of speed, but faltered when the time came to show her real worth.

There was little to the first race outside of Miltipot for the Cook six-year-old ran right back to form and ran clean all the way, winning by two and one-half lengths from Cobinby. The latter dropped in behind the leader at the start and under the skillful handling of McNamee lasted long enough to gather the money. Tony Faust, well back and made the favorite, dogged it and also lacked speed, and was never far from position to give his backers the least bit of encouragement.

PAWHUSKA FIRST FAVORITE TO WIN.

Pawhuska was selected by the wise men to bring home the mint in the second event, a five and one-half furlong dash, and the two-year-old was right there all the time, though Obszar did make the Wright entry extend himself at the wire.

The latter ran a swell race and will be hot to beat in this kind of a field from now on. Beatrice Soule is a fine looking filly and should be hard from.

Green B. Morris' Deadwood is another likely looking two-year-old, and has plenty of speed all through the race.

Colonel JACK RUNS A SWELL RACE.

O. Turek's six-year-old Colonel Jack was the idol of the girls, ran along with Adriache, and these two ran a pretty race in the third event, he old veteran beating the Walker entry by outrunning the mare at the end. The latter was off badly and ran a swell race to the stretch. There she seemed to the hardly and Jack shot to the front.

Howard Pearson ran well until the half, at which pole he began to falter badly, but hung on long enough to get the show.

ARCHIBALD RIDING WINS THE FIFTH.

Archibald showed better jockeyship on Sepulveda than did Page in Sir Edward, and that explains why McNamee easily defeated the Walker entry in the fifth race. The winner, the Belmont, left at the post while Sir Edward went wide of the front. Sepulveda is a took his strides at the quarter and began to extend and under clever handling by Archibald nosed out Sir Edward. Sike ran a clever race and will do from now on.

LONG SHOT' GATHERS IN FINAL RACE.

The Eastern form of Salira sent the Camden filly to the post in favorite of the final race of the day, but she could not recover the ground she lost in time to win. New Capital finshed a head in front. Sepulveda had a wide lead in front of Directella, who looked like a winner in the stretch. The boy could not keep her head up though and back to fourth place she went.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The selling war is now in full blast. Eddie Robinson, the man who can make a piano talk, was a visitor at the track yesterday.

OAKS LOOKING FOR BIG CROWD AT BENEFIT

Christian Has a Fast Bunch; So Has Spencer, Which Insures Good Ball.

The Oakland Coast League ball players who elected to winter in California, are to have a bumper benefit next Sunday morning at Freeman's park before they separate until next season.

Stan Nelson and Tyler Christian will do the pitching, while Tommy Thomas will catch. The rest of the line-up will include Hogan, Margott, Wares, Cutshaw, Shaw, and other favorites.

Hank Spencer will have charge of the big and little leaguers who are to oppose the Oaks, and Hank says he will win hands down. Besides the ball game there is to be a bunch of field events, including running the bases, fungo hitting, accuracy throwing and long-distance throwing, so that the fans look for their money's worth and their fun.

Those that bought tickets for the benefit of November 8 need not worry about buying another, for those will add to the park Sunday. The game will be held at 2 p. m. so that everybody can get back home in time for lunch or go over to San Francisco to see the big battle between the firemen and police at Recreation park.

SANTA CLARA IS READY.

SANTA CLARA, Nov. 18.—The Santa Clara football team will go up to Oakland tomorrow for their annual game with St. Mary's College in the best condition of the season and may be relied upon to put up a hard, fast struggle. The rug squad will be accompanied by over 600 students and their friends.

The students held an enthusiastic rally on the campus last night at which the team was introduced and acclaimed. Speeches were made by Captain Hardin Barry, Coach Harry Renwick, Team Manager Edward White and Athletic Director Victor White.

STATE SENATORS HOLD CONFERENCE

J. W. Stetson of Oakland Says They Wish to Ascertain Meaning of Pledges.

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 19.—An important conference of Republican state senators was held in this city today to discuss the purpose of promised legislation at Sacramento, at the conclusion of the session. In connection with the organization of the session. In addition to the senators who were at the conference there were ex-Rep. Charles R. Brown, pastor of the First Congregational Church of this city where only three of the intimate friends of the young couple witnessed the ceremony.

The marriage comes as a surprise to the many friends of the popular couple, who had planned to be married at the home of the bride's parents in Pacific Grove on Christmas Day.

The senators present were: Edward Strangford, Ferdinand F. Bush,

Franklin Ernest, Bushnell, Elmer; Charles P. Cutten, Humboldt; Miguel S. Eudalio, Riverside; John W. Stetson, Oakland; Milton W. Thompson, Los Angeles; Charles Bell, Pasadena; L. H. Roseberry, Santa Barbara.

PLAN TO ORGANIZE.

While the redemption of platform pledges was said to be the important subject under consideration, the various committees was a matter which would be given at least informal consideration. All of the state senators present are holdover Republicans from the old state platform," said Senator Stetson of Oakland. "contains many pledges to the people. We are here to ascertain just how much these pledges are worth."

"The Republican state committee held a similar meeting Tuesday and we are proceeding on the same lines. Pledged meant definite things, and the Republican senators want to make the pledges mean just those things to the people. That is the Republican party promised to do certain things in the legislature, and we want to know just how to make good. Hence our meeting."

FILES PETITION FOR ESTATE TAX

Asks Appraiser Be Appointed for Property Left by Ferdinand Myers.

County Treasurer M. J. Kelly filed petition for the payment of the inheritance tax due on the estate of Ferdinand Myers, who died in April of this year following the deceding of his real estate to his heirs, Hannah Myers, Walter Locke, Genevieve Locke and Annie Grabe.

Kelly states that the estate is valued at $68,000, aside from personal property valued at $15,000, the estate consists of realty located in the towns of Eden and San Leandro. He asks that an appraiser be appointed in order that the amount of inheritance tax can be determined.

Kelly claims that the property was conveyed to Myers to his heirs in contemplation of his approaching death and that the conveyances were intended to take effect after his death.

Deaven entered the bank during business hours yesterday, covered the cashier with a revolver and demanded all the money within reach.

The cashier ducked under the counter and Deaven, firing a fraction of a second too late, sent a bullet into the wall.

The would-be kidnapper was overpowered by bystanders while trying to fight his way to an automobile which he had waiting for him outside the bank.

COUPLE ELOPE AND WED IN OAKLAND

WEDDING REPORT VERIFIED BY WIRE

Pacific Grove Girl Becomes a Bride One Month Ahead of Time.

Miss Beatrice Campbell of Pacific Grove and Leslie Devereaux of San Francisco, were quietly married Wednesday evening in the study of Rev. Charles R. Brown, pastor of the First Congregational Church of this city where only three of the intimate friends of the young couple witnessed the ceremony.

The marriage comes as a surprise to the many friends of the popular couple, who had planned to be married at the home of the bride's parents in Pacific Grove on Christmas Day.

Two minutes before the train pulled into the station, Pacific Grove, Miss. Campbell made up her mind to wed Devereaux. Without any thought of a tussle or friend, the couple got a bee line to a marriage license and immediately proceeded to the home of Mrs. Christina Reiter, 2207 West street.

Mr. Devereaux is a fair, blonde, 19-year-old son of a tailor of a well-known contractor of Pacific Grove. Devereaux is in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company, where he holds a responsible position in the commissary department.

The romance of the young couple covers a period of about four years, and their engagement has been kept secret in San Francisco and Los Angeles, where they are now living. They will make their home in San Francisco.

STILL PROBING DALTON CHARGES

Assessor's Deputy Testify in the Hearing by the Grand Jury.

The grand jury confirmed the investigation of the charges made against Assessor Henry P. Dalton of malfeasance in office today and examined over a dozen witnesses, most of whom are deputies in the assessor's office.

Leslie Blackburn, who made the charges against Dalton, was also examined, but it could not be learned why he was called before the grand jury.

He was accompanied by assessors who were summoned to appear in the case.

Their testimony was in refutation of the charges contained in the affidavit made by Frank Shay, former deputy in Dalton's office, that the latter was pocketed a sum of his salary every month that was pocketed by Dalton.

Each one of the deputies examined by the grand jury either testified or was requested to give any part of their monthly salaries to the assessor as an insurance upon their jobs.

The names of the witnesses examined are as follows: James Bergone, G. N. Washington, E. E. Hunt, R. E. Colburn, O. L. Hesse, H. C. Almirth, C. F. Pirlo, C. A. Jackson, J. C. Clegg, A. W. Cummings, E. O. Tuttle, Charles Cummings and Leslie Blackburn.

Proceed With Caution!

The piano you admit into your home will be either a source of joy and satisfaction or of regrets and disappointment according to the materials used and the skill and integrity of its maker.

Therefore it is well, in considering the purchase of so important an article as a piano, to proceed with caution.

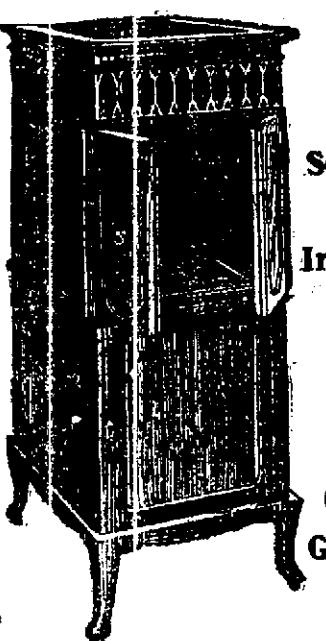

Almost any new piano looks and sounds well on the warehouse floor, but you probably lack the expert knowledge necessary to determine the permanence of these desirable qualities.

Your safety lies, then, in buying a piano of a reputable maker from a house in whose integrity you can rely.

MONEY PROVIDED FOR OILING STREETS

Funds Set Aside for the Benefit of the Annexed Districts.

The auditing and finance committee of the city council last night recommended to that body an ordinance authorizing the Board of Public Works to advertise for and contract for oiling streets in the annexed district and appropriating $3000 for that purpose.

AUTO FIRE ENGINES:

The plan to purchase automobile fire engines at a cost of over $25,000 was laid over until a further report was received from Chief Bell.

The recommendation of the Board of Public Works that a membership be secured in an organization of municipal officials who are standardizing specifications in street pavements, was also laid over.

A sum not to exceed $800 was appropriated to cover the expenses of transmitting a loan to the neighboring city of Alameda, Clarendon district, which will be used by the city as a site for a fire house in the vicinity of Sixty-second and Rover streets providing that a near exchange can be made.

This was in response to a petition presented to the council some time ago and signed by nearly 200 persons that they be given fire protection in that district.

LOT WANTED FOR PARK:

Charles F. Reinold, who for two years has been holding a lot in the block bounded by Thirtieth and Thirty-second streets and Union street, that is wanted by the city for park purposes, asked the finance committee what action was intended. The committee resolved that the Park Commission be directed to get an option on the property with a view to final purchase.

The railroad committee took up the application of the Oakland Traction Company for a franchise on Nineteenth street or Grand avenue and recommended its passage upon the agreement of the company to lay down a proper pavement.

A resolution calling on the city attorney to draw up a ordinance providing for penalties for the introduction of storm water from roofs, walks, etc., into the sewers in the annexed district was sent without recommendation to the council.

$50,000 in Stamps Is Added to Collection

Son of Collis P. Huntington Now Owns Finest Set On Western Hemisphere.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The finest collection of postage stamps in America is now in the possession of Archer M. Huntington of New York, son of the late Collis P. Huntington. Huntington has just returned from abroad with a strong box full of rare stamps, which, when added to his already noteworthy collection, make it the largest and best on this side of the Atlantic.

His purchases in Europe this summer are valued at almost $10,000. Huntington was prepared on his arrival to pay a duty of $12,000 on the stamps and was disappointed when the customs officials informed him that stamps were not dutiable. Among experts here and abroad Huntington's collection is ranked as equal to that possessed by King George of England.

Huntington also is a well-known coin collector and founder of the Numismatic Society, which is housed in a $250,000 clubhouse presented by him.

WATER RUNNING OVER GREAT CONCRETE DAM

OROVILLE, Nov. 18.—Water is running over the top of the big concrete dam of the Great Western Power Company at Intake, in the Feather river canyon, and has broken through the embankment, forming a great lake. The dam was completed Tuesday and its gates were closed for the first time. The dam is eighty-eight feet high from the bedrock and 385 feet long. The top between the rocky walls of the canyon is seventy-five feet wide at its base. It is of solid rock and cement, 1000 carloads of the latter being required in its construction. Millions of gallons of water are impounded behind it and forced through a great tunnel that delivers it to an immense electric plant at the other side of the mountain, three miles distant.

GAYNOR FAVORS SHEPARD. NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Mayor Gaynor said today that he was heartily in favor of the election of Edward M. Shepard by the non-slaveholding legislature as successor of Chauncy M. Depew in the United States senate.

"I was Crippled, could hardly walk and had to Crawl down stairs at times on my hands and knees. My doctor told me I had an acute attack of inflammatory rheumatism. I was in the hospital for weeks, but was scarcely able to walk when I left it. I read about Dr. Miles' Nervine bought a bottle and began to get better from the start, and for the past six months have had scarcely any pain and am able to walk as well as ever." J.H. SANDERS, P.O. box 5, Rockaway, N.J.

Few medicines are of any benefit for rheumatism, but Mr. Sanders tells plainly what Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine did for it. One ounce of salicylate of soda added to one bottle of Nervine makes an excellent remedy for rheumatism, which is now known to be a nervous disease and therefore subject to the influence of a medicine that acts through the nerves, as does Dr. Miles' Nervine.

Suffers from rheumatism seldom fail to find relief in the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine, with salicylate of soda.

Sold under a guarantee that assures the return of the value of the first bottle if it fails to benefit. At all Druggists.

St. Louis, Mo.—"I was bothered terribly with a female weakness and had backache, bearing down pains and pains in lower parts. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound regularly and use the Sanative Wash and now I have no more troubles than that way."—MRS. AL. HERZOG, 5722 Prescott Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a try. It's surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result is worth millions to many suffering women.

ELECTRICIANS TO GIVE $100 BOND

Council Committee Decides Against Making Workers Pay a License.

Quite a discussion developed when the two ordinances providing for either a license of $50 a year or a surety bond of $100 to be required from every one engaged in electrical work came up before the license and judiciary committee of the city council last night.

One of the ordinances provided that the contractor in electrical work should pay a $50 a year license as guarantee that the work be done according to the terms of the ordinance. The other called for a surety bond.

Representatives of the labor unions, while in general favoring the ordinance, vigorously opposed its adoption. Thomas J. Thompson of the Okland Gas and Electric Company declared that the license ordinance was designed to create a monopoly and to keep men out of the business.

After arguing the matter at length, the committee finally recommended that the utility bond ordinance be sent to the council for passage. There seemed to be no doubt as to whether the license ordinance was constitutional, as it had been approved by the city attorney.

Serious objection was raised by Councilman Steffens when the application came up for the second time. Leonard, who formerly conducted the establishment in the basement of the Macdonald building, to J. Summers, claiming that Leonard never owned the building and that he had never been forced to transfer it to the Blue and Gold Brewing Company or owned it, the other parties were present.

ATTORNEY IN JURIS.

Attorney F. H. Bartlett, representing the creditors of the firm and desired to know who was the owner of the license. And Max Marcus appeared for the brewing company in behalf of Summers. The transfer was recommended.

CHILDREN TO HEAR THANKSGIVING STORY

A treat is in store for the children of Oakland tomorrow morning, when Mrs. Eric Olsen will tell them her Thanksgiving story in the children's room of the library in Fourth street.

Mrs. Olsen is a professional story-teller of long experience, who has lately arrived from the east, where the revival of the art of story-telling is no longer regarded as a dead letter. In many of the Atlantic cities and throughout the larger cities of the middle west professional story-tellers are employed in the schools and play parks.

Household implements used to prepare the first Thanksgiving dinner, etc., etc.—will be loaned by the curator of the museum to lend an air of realism to the story.

GREAT DAM COMPLETED ON MOKELOMINE RIVER

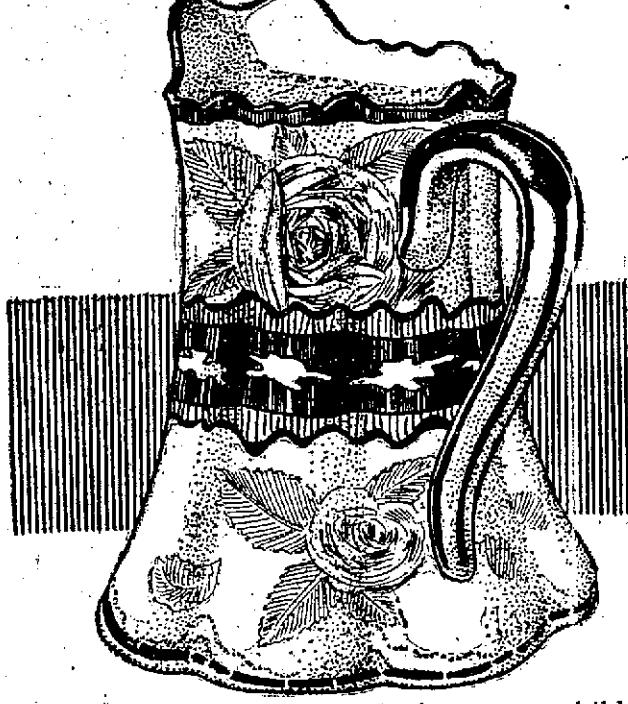

STOCKTON, Nov. 18.—What is claimed to be the finest dam of the kind ever constructed in a valley waterway in the west was completed yesterday at Woodbridge, on the Mokelumne river, from which water is to be taken to irrigate a large acreage in the northern part of San Joaquin county.

The new structure will turn the water from the Mokelumne river into a canal already constructed for the purpose of watering about 10,000 acres. When the dam is completed it will be possible to extend the lateral to take in about 20,000 more. It is claimed that this new dam will be permanent, and those who have inspected it say that the farmers need not worry about their water supply for irrigation hereafter. The acreage to be irrigated will be used for various kinds of crops.
